Scotiabank's Privacy Commitment

Since 1832, Scotiabank's business and reputation have been built on trusted relationships with our customers, employees, and other stakeholders. The protection of information in our custody is a critical component of these trusted relationships.

As part of our ongoing commitment to fostering and maintaining trust, Scotiabank has established a robust privacy program that is designed to protect the personal information entrusted to us.

We work hard to:

- Be Accountable: We have established a foundational privacy framework that sets out the structure and accountability for the treatment of personal information across the Bank. Our privacy framework is overseen by a dedicated Privacy Office, led by our Chief Privacy Officer, that sets and maintains Scotiabank's privacy program.
- Be Safe: We have implemented measures designed to protect the personal information that has been entrusted to us.
- Be Respectful: We collect, use, and disclose personal information in a manner that is fair, ethical and non-discriminatory.
- Be Useful: We use information to deliver value, enhance the banking experience, and to manage our business.
- Be Adaptable: We monitor privacy and data protection laws, standards and industry practices so that we can provide our products and services in a privacy-respectful manner.
- Be Transparent: We explain how we handle personal information in a clear and easily accessible manner.

Our Privacy Agreement describes how we treat personal information including the types of personal information we collect, when and why we collect and use personal information, and the circumstances when we share and disclose it. For a full copy of our Privacy Agreement, please visit:
